To Samuel Monson Esq^r
President of the Board of Trade

Dear Mr. Pearce, I am very glad to hear that you have had the pleasure of receiving my Circular dated 1st Decr. 1810 and forwarded it to your Excellency. I have also had the pleasure of receiving your Excellency's despatch in consequence of which Mr. Pearce has been requested by Mr. G. H. Collyer, Agent General for the Province of Nagpur to make a copy of his Circular for your Excellency's information. The Circular was given by Mr. G. H. Collyer and is as follows:-

Friend of the People Friends I would like to add a few more observations that are in agreement with the representatives of the slaves over yesterdays paper. I think our State has had good reason to believe that the action of the slaves has not been in vain. The people of this State have not moved during the month of May and June and now yesterdays news that the slaves have started to move this afternoon at 10 o'clock and in the State have been alermed with the alarm success in every thing they do.
I trust the slaves will be successful.

I got a few miles up the river before I made out to have a place to camp. I stopped at a house about 1/2 mile from the river. The man who owned it was a very old man, about 80 years of age. He had a son and a daughter living with him. They were very poor. The old man said he had no money to give me, but he would let me stay with them and eat with them. I told him I would pay him for my room and board. He said he would not accept any payment. I told him I would pay him for my room and board. He said he would not accept any payment. Good morning, Sir, and before you make up your mind to do so, I would like to say that I am not the author of the letter which you received from me on the 21st and 22d ultimo and I sincerely regret that it has been published. I am a simple, uneducated man, and when I wrote that letter I was simply trying to make myself understood and to let you know what I had in my mind. I used all the language I knew at the time, and I am sorry if it has caused you trouble. I have since written to Mr. Bullock, and he has kindly responded. Your kind words have been a great comfort to me, and I am very grateful for them. I shall always remember you as a good man, and I hope we may meet again.

Yours truly, John Bullock, Boston, Mass.

Mr. W. C. Stetson, manager of the "New York Post," Boston, and indeed, necessity of preventing any immigration into India, the Governor of the Province of Two soldiers very gallantly stepped to his office, one a young recruit who had made up his mind to go to the front, the other a soldier, somewhat older, who had made up his mind to go to the rear, and both of them were told to go to the Major for a discharge, and both replied that they would not leave the front. On my way back I called again to see the Major, and he said "I have no more official orders." I immediately got into my car and drove home in time to get back to the 1st Company.

My last letter informed you of my arrival at Quebec, and your communication of the 18th told of my return, with some very interesting intelligence. You have not told me much of my friends. They go steadily regularly and morally, despite their variousness, and are safe. I have seen a good deal of the Upper Town, and as far back as the foot of St. Charles, and still further up the hill, where there are many acceptable houses, in fact, to be seen in all directions. I am most kindly received and do well. The people are not so dear from the instructions of Mr. Farquharson, who is most important in his position in our school, and makes a number of us boys very good scholars. I am now in the neighborhood of St. Lawrence and St. Boniface, in St. Paul. The former town is the largest, and has added many fine new houses. The latter is the old, little town, founded in 1642, and has been added to by St. Boniface, an expert hand, particularly in masonry, a native French settlement from Bourges, in the south of France, and who is now the most active builder in the city. In the neighborhood of St. Boniface, as I have already by letter, communicated to you in my last letter, England must have a right to occupy it, the Duke will make his best to obtain it from the other. The English and foreign Powers, from whom we have no right to expect any assistance, will be compelled to give up their pretensions. France, who has not yet made up her mind, will be greatly inclined by the appearance of the English, to give up her claim. The Duke will then be in a position to make a peace with France, and increase the means of his final success in the Netherlands.

of farms located on the river bottoms from Lake of the Woods to the North West. The Spring River is covered with scattered boggy land, but much timber, big trees to make good railroad timbers. I have been up the river about 10 miles, and the river is narrow, shallow and the mud bottom runs over your feet like a bed of sand.

On the 15th we started for the town of Guadalupe, which is situated on the river of the same name, about 12 miles from the coast. The river is very large, and has a current of about 10 miles per hour. It is navigable for small boats, and is used as a means of communication between the interior and the coast. The town of Guadalupe is a small village, with a population of about 1000 people. It is situated on a hill, and has a church, a few houses, and a few trees. The river flows through the town, and there is a bridge over it. The town is surrounded by hills and mountains, and the sky is clear and blue.

It is well to have a small number of books on hand, and to have them well arranged. Books on subjects which you are interested in will be more valuable than those which you are not.

You have greatly improved an excellent lesson, and we will now submit our改订本 to the judges of the competition. If you would like to add some Indian and English text to the original, and I can conveniently repeat in the Econometrics of your lesson, I should be happy to add a second edition of your lesson. It is important that you add some Indian advantages and Indian results.

Had the honor to address your Lordship, with the following and some other observations, from the above town, when I was with you at the former session. Now by favor of a well known agent, I have had an opportunity to repeat this extract, and I beg to assure you that it is copied from the original document, and is therefore entirely correct. - The most important portion of my letter is omitted, as it relates to the subject of the present negotiations.

The original model of the new government, proposed by Mr. Franklin, was ready on the 17th November, 1787. It should be left to the people's judgment, from their own knowledge of the subject, to decide what would be the best form of government. The author of the Constitution, however, had a very clear idea of what he wanted.

In reply our returning the following day
Lester gave us a speech & I made a little speech about how a little government can do a lot in promotion of the human progress & the development of the human spirit.

We have now reached the final stage of our experiment.
Please let us know what you think.

Mr. I am authorized by his attorney of the highest rank in London to copy for you the following letter which He has written to you & Boston.
I would like to add my hearty endorsement to the General Council's resolution to government to demand from it a change of the system of taxation which will be a safe & permanent for England in every way & which I heartily endorse. Mr. Wm. Parker of Boston is a man of great knowledge & I am sure he is right in his statement that our present taxation is very arbitrary & unfair, exacting a tax of arbitrary amount on articles of little value while it leaves others uncharged. Such a system of taxation is the greatest evil in society, as it tends to harmonize with a tyrannical & despotic system and to recruit its army of slaves.
The General Council's resolution is a step in the right direction. The money you have sent me must go to Boston, so as to be used in the following year

- Afternoon - The cedar wood basket was the following eve-aled from the ground by Captain Rabell. The basket had been interred in the high embankment in the middle of the road leading to the station.
2. We left Rabell's house at 1 P.M. and
3. Arrived at Laramie about 4 P.M. and
4. Left on the stage for Cheyenne at 6 P.M.
Afternoon - A large number of Indians had gathered at the station.
I found a letter from Mr. C. S. Coffey and a check for $1000.00 which I handed over to Mr. Coffey.
The Indians were numerous and were camped all along the road.

I hope you will send back the instrument and have now the Observer you like or prefer to your telescope which I received this morning from the Observatory.
I have sent the lens to the Observatory and expect to get it back before the meeting of the Philosophical Association, which will be held at Princeton on October 1st. I have also arranged for a telegraph to be sent to the Observatory to let them know when the instrument is ready to be used. The Carlsbad observatory is to be used for the observations belonging to your instrument as far as I understand from a personal interview at Princeton with the professor of mathematics and a teacher in the observatory. I will let you know as soon as I receive the letter from the Observatory.
I will let you know as soon as I receive the letter from the Observatory.
Let me know if you have any objection to my sending the instrument to you by mail. I will do so if you prefer it.

I now write to you to inform you of a trip I made to the West Indies about a month ago. I went to Barbados, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and the Cuban Islands. The weather was not very good during the time I was there, nevertheless we did some sightseeing with the exception of the time we spent in Puerto Rico, which was not very good. I saw a lot of things that were very interesting, and I will tell you about them in my next letter. I also saw a lot of people, and I think they are very nice people. I will tell you about them in my next letter. I will leave this portion of the present letter with the rest of the letter, and the remainder you will receive.

at a Cabin house, & left you, were Indians who had returned to B. Town, and had a hard life there, affected as they were by the cold. You must not let the Indians make you believe the tale of Indian robbery, &c. It is hardly necessary to warn you of this, as the Indians
I have met with to date, have been in no manner of the way at all. The Indians
I know of, of our native tribes, have never meant to do us any injury, and I may be wrong in this, but I shall be highly gratified, if your arrangements

Moorfield is gone & will be followed by the following, in order after his return:
 1. Call him back to the Department to meet with the public Department or awaiting General Battle.
 2. Mr. P. L. Yost the Attorney to Boston, Boston and Foreign of his departure from England send a copy of every letter with his return to him
Samuel M. Mayes
Cardinal of Baltimore.

At

I have the honor to enclose a copy of a letter received here about yesterday evening from Mr. Chapman who has just left the country in consequence of a very violent storm which has all day long continued, particularly against the letters directed to him in an attempt to intercept the packets. I hope Mr. Moorefield is to leave Boston at the earliest possible time, so as to get home as quickly as possible. Please to let me know if you can do anything to facilitate his early return to the city.

Yours very truly
Wm. H. SewardBaptist
May 1861.

13. By arrangement of my Agent in New York, received the following:
 After you have sent the 25th ult.
 Letter from the Secretary of State to Mr. Moorefield, 25th ult.
 Copy of letter from the Rev. S. H. Hall to Mr. Moorefield, dated 25th March.
 Basket from the City of Boston to the Boston Convention for

14. Will be following letter
 The Secretary to the Massachusetts Legislature former member of the General Assembly of Col. William Moorefield
 Boston

I send last the same to establish your facts, & shall do so.
 If you know of any which you have no record of, you will let me know. I am now engaged with some individuals in preparing some alterations in my letter to Col. Moorefield, & the object of doing so

Baltimore

May 1861

15. I communicate with Mr. Moorefield over your letter of 13th May of the present, & enclose the Rev. Dr. C. H. with the corresponding copy of his letter.
 Your favor recd. from Mr. Chapman on 1st instant, I have to do with the loss of his packet, and the method of extracting it from the post office. I enclose a copy of his letter to me, and the general circumstances attending his loss of his packet, from the 2nd to the 25th ult., & will do my best to recover it. Please advise me when you receive the letter, so that I may be able to make arrangements to have it forwarded to you. I have also a copy of his letter to me, dated 25th ult., in which he informs Mr. Moorefield how & where to send his money, & I have enclosed a copy of the same, so that you may be able to make arrangements to receive it when you receive the letter. Your views would be of great assistance in recovering of his letters, & your views would be of great assistance in making arrangements to receive them.

I have just received from the General Office in New York, a communication of your letter respecting the transmission from Boston, that you had been remissed.

Newcastle, June 1st To ascertain a copy of my letter to you, when sent, & to ascertain of your arrival in New Hampshire, I am now sending you another letter, enclosing a copy of my letter, with which you will be able to compare it.

I have just now received a copy of my letter, from Mr. Chapman, dated 1st instant, and very simple. The receipt of your letter, notwithstanding the fact that it was originally facilitated, as the result of your much greater facility in the last letter, with the Post-Office Department, relative to the passage of Captain Tammie from the "Confederate" to the "Coburg", and the arrival of Captain Tammie in the summer, does not appear to take much time to transact business, and I trust that you will be able to make arrangements to receive my letter & to postpone your letter, until the arrival of Captain Tammie.

My dear, Considerable 15th May 1861. Much had occurred from the time of our last meeting.

To Mr. Moorefield in coming to Boston and giving him a copy of my letter

Mr. W. C. Davis
 Post-Office Department

Boston, May 15th

I enclose the same to adduce you in the 26th instant to Boston, and I now beg you, respect fully to inform you that I shall not

Bulwer

May 1811

Bulwer, you are elegant, the news from me clear and I am back again to-day, now yesterday, by returning to Mombasa from Zanzibar, and the accompanying Captain H. W. S. left Aden last night. The Governor-General will be upon Zanzibar soon and I have here you will be to see my men on our new ships
Our late ships in the Indian Service of the 4th March, from among our old allowing Cliffs, and a few of the great Moguls.

Bulwer
1st May 1811

Captain David Phipps
Residence at Mombasa
M.

You shall hear more to-morrow from me, as I have not received any from you yet.
I have now told Bulwer how our little trouble President Magistrate received his orders to do all we can to secure special care of the sick & the safety of the natives, & to provide for their comfort as far as possible. I have now written to him, to inform him of the state of things in Zanzibar, to him, & Bulwer, to inform them of the present and imminent difficulties, more and more, of the republic of Zanzibar. — we must be prepared to meet all our difficulties
I am happy to inform you that the many vessels to be fitted Anonymously, I held at anchor at Mombasa on the 1st March, with 1700 men, and that the British Government are engaged to take care of a dozen Savannahs &c. for us.

Last night the Hon^rble Mr. & Mrs. G. H. C. & myself went to the Festival of the Ganges, and now, as I am now returning to the Metropolis, I will give you a short account of what we saw.
On the 1st and 2^d of the month of June last, we were in Calcutta and yesterday we came to Bombay.
We had a long ride, however, before we reached the city, which we did not do until about 10 o'clock at night, having been delayed by the want of horses, and so late at night, that we had to sleep in a house given us by our officers, where we lay on the floor, as they have no beds, chairs or tables, as new ones are not common in India, and have to be made out of old ones, and as we are accustomed to very bad beds, we are not much inconvenienced by quality or quantity. In our way to the city, we met a large party of people from Madras who had been there lately, and were returning home. These people were very poor indeed, and it was pitiable to see them in such a state of destitution, and we can but sympathize with their misery and a desire to remove to some other country, if we had the chance.

I am sorry that the information will scarcely do you justice, but I will endeavor to give you a full account later of the day, and I will do my best with the greatest regard.

My dear Sir,
Yours truly
John Russell & Son

Last night the Hon^rble Mr. & Mrs. G. H. C. & myself arrived in Calcutta on the 27th March, and, notwithstanding our trouble with the publick offices, the government of Bengal is much to be praised for its politeness. They have been most kind to us.
I have the pleasure to inform you that a Calcutta Journal has been founded to you, and to the Government. It is called "The Calcutta Journal" and is published every Saturday.
It is now printed in Calcutta, and will continue your publication.
It is well worth the trouble of reading, as it contains a great deal of information respecting the affairs of India.
Give the Hon^rble Mr. & Mrs. G. H. C. & myself my best regards.

In this year, 1840, I have had the very difficult task to complete the last division of our large collection of American Shells. I have done my best, and I hope, I have done myself justice. I have had to work hard, and I have spent a great deal of time and labor, from the Good Mr. Chas. my friend you will be surprised to tell me when I come round you to see my wife & myself going to the Reindeer Club on Saturday evening. The Head Master said it was a very interesting & instructive evening. I have recommended it to Mr. Ward and as I have the tickets I will give them to him to be sold at the meeting interval & then I will give you a copy of the public address given by

I am now writing from last of the date M. 27 March you wished your several communications with their factors of Gold Coast 7 and 20 Feb. 7. 21 March & 26 May. They were recently delivered to me and I present my acknowledgments as the 20. March, 18. April and 25. 19. May 22. and 27. May.
I have carefully read what you manipulatively say in your letter of Feb. 20. and I do not understand your statement that as you say "there can't be given up the trans-Gold Coast portion of our territory without a fairly good loss to us". The Earl of Pomona has succeeded in establishing a boundary commission between New Guinea, the territories of the Banks Islands, Portuguese Timor and the Cape of Good Hope, which involves a very small amount of land to the natives over which we have no right. After the War there was an article in the "Globe" newspaper on the following day, 28. 3. 1880, in their opinion that "we did well to give up the territories of the Banks Islands, as the 20. Ultimo, and the Cape of Good Hope, as well as the 27. Ultimo, and the 25. May."

his gratitude. After his return to London and before he left for Scotland again, he had an audience with King George III, in the performance of his functions as Ambassador Extraordinary to his court. He requested to be received by the Duke of Argyll, who was then the Commissary General, and he was invited to dinner at the ordinary, or as it was then called, the Queen's Kitchen, and he and his family were the first guests there. His master was never present at dinner, but the Duke, accompanied by other gentlemen of the court, and especially by the Duke of York, and the Duke of Kent, were with him. The Duke of Argyll had no more reason to consider himself subordinate than the Duke of York, who was the King's son, and the Duke of Kent, who was the King's brother.

of the general concern. I will add a word about the U.S. M. and underestimating the English materialism. I am, as well as numerous other men, as you know, a great admirer of the English materialists, but I do not at all share the ideas of Hume and Huxley as a result of their scientific processes by which they are brought to the conclusion that there is nothing but matter. The following general outline of Hume's philosophy may help you to understand his ideas more clearly.
He holds to a priori principles, that is, principles which are not derived from experience.
He also holds to the principle of causation, and he believes that causation is not itself a quality of things, but is a relation between two qualities, or two states of things.

Read McNaught's article and asked him to take along and I do hope I was successful in getting it to him.
I have written the author and asked him to add his article to the present issue of "Puritan," containing a reply to his article.
The article is now ready which I received from Mr. Parker in time to make the King's Fund a part of it.
However, as I have written a tract about the subject of the King's Fund, I am not anxious to publish another one at this time.
I am however, very anxious to have the King's Fund under my own roof, as I have received a large amount of money, a sum equal to about four thousand dollars.

For this you will have to do. I have brought you also the following from Mr. T. C. Jones, of Jones and Brown, in the City of Franklin, until he can give me the full story.
I hope you will be able to get it from him at once.
I am sending you also a copy of the "Daily Journal" of yesterday, followed by a copy of the "Daily American" of the same date, so that you may see what has been done.
I hope you will be able to get them from Mr. T. C. Jones.

Long time ago I used to go to a place called "The Lagoon" on the shores of Lake Ontario, about 10 miles from the city of Oswego. It was a very quiet place, with a few houses, and a small boat house. There were many trees, and the water was very clear. I used to go there with my father, and we would fish for perch and bass. We would also go swimming and play in the water. The air was fresh and the sun was bright. It was a great place to spend a day.

Indeed we believe that the movement of immigrants is a reflection of the economic well-being and prosperity of the United States. It suggests that if there is to be a more substantial basis for this country's economy, it is conceivable, even a renewal of established patterns of industrialization, may be required to supply the services that expand. But this is an admission by government, that they ought to do something about it. I would like them to concentrate on getting their act in order, and then the character of immigration.

On my arrival at your residence in Boston I was cordially welcomed as a brother and an adopted son. Gave to Oregon & returned with the usual party to the coast.
Left on our several trips after Oct 15th and 16th to see the various parts of the state.
I am much gratified by your description of the natural history of Oregon. It is a bold and energetic people but the climate is cold & healthily dampened by the great number of the mountains and the great atmospheric deposit of moisture which is impeded by the mountains.
The climate here is cool but healthy and I greatly desire to repeat my visit and stay longer to study the natural history of Oregon. The people are friendly and hospitable and I am certainly well received. The climate is favorable for me and I hope to return to the coast again next summer.
I am sending you a copy of my description of the Oregon

July 1867

Sir I enclose today some very interesting intelligence.

On the 15th instant I received by cable a general order of the intelligence department to you, which gave a general history of the 1st Division & its movements, which I enclose the same.

On the 16th instant I had the satisfaction to receive very important intelligence from a source in the interior of the general army of Nagpur concerning movements which were respectively made by General Peshwa & General Kondapati, and General Duleep Singh & General G. S. Chaitanya.

On the 17th instant I had the honor to receive General Peshwa's General Order No. 10, which directed that we move to the southwards & attack the British troops at Bellary. I am enclosing a copy of this order for your information, also a copy of General Peshwa's General Order No. 11, which directed that we move to the northwards & attack the British troops at Bangalore.

On the 18th instant I received by returning a messenger from Bellary intelligence of the arrival before 10 A.M. of a force having 4,000 men under command of General Peshwa & General Kondapati, and General Duleep Singh, who were moving to the northwards - the 1st Division was on its way to Bangalore.

On the 19th instant I received from the 1st Division the following intelligence from their chief engineer - "I enclose to you a copy of my General Order No. 12, which directed the division to march to the northwards & attack the British troops at Bangalore. I also enclose a copy of General Peshwa's General Order No. 13, which directed that we move to the southwards & attack the British troops at Bellary.

General Peshwa's General Order No. 12, which directed the division to march to the northwards & attack the British troops at Bangalore, is as follows: - "General Order No. 12. The division is to march to the northwards & attack the British troops at Bangalore. It is only desired that the division has sufficient time to make a complete & mutual division of the forces of the 1st Division."

General Peshwa's General Order No. 13, which directed that we move to the southwards & attack the British troops at Bellary, is as follows: - "General Order No. 13. The division is to march to the southwards & attack the British troops at Bellary. It is only desired that the division has sufficient time to make a complete & mutual division of the forces of the 1st Division."

General Peshwa's General Order No. 12, which directed the division to march to the northwards & attack the British troops at Bangalore, is as follows: - "General Order No. 12. The division is to march to the northwards & attack the British troops at Bangalore. It is only desired that the division has sufficient time to make a complete & mutual division of the forces of the 1st Division."

General Peshwa's General Order No. 13, which directed that we move to the southwards & attack the British troops at Bellary, is as follows: - "General Order No. 13. The division is to march to the southwards & attack the British troops at Bellary. It is only desired that the division has sufficient time to make a complete & mutual division of the forces of the 1st Division."

Postscript In the course of a recent excursion to others broken by the hand of man. The fragments were scattered over the beach and in the water, and it was necessary to wade through them to get to the shore. The glass was mostly broken by the action of the waves.

But I am right. In the East, the Emperor's Clark Hounds were running over the Chinese, who were scattered and disorganized. So far as the past 100 years go, the Chinese have been beaten by the British, the French, the Americans, the Germans, the Russians, the Japanese, and the Americans again. You can see how much more easily another country could do this.

The group of men who had been sent to the coast to explore probably did not go far inland, but the Indians had been there for a long time, and had probably learned where the best hunting grounds were. The Indians had been here before the white men came, and they had probably learned where the best hunting grounds were.

For when we got to the city we went to the Hotel Del Norte & the next evening we had dinner at the Hotel Del Norte. We got a room in which was a letter from Governor about the 1st meeting of the Constitutional Convention of New Mexico. This was done at a house of Mr. John W. Johnson, who was the author of the letter.
I have also the letter from the Governor of the Meeting Church & that showed in having interdenominational influence.
We left the hotel about 10 o'clock in the morning & were to have to go with the general order.

and I am sure you will be very anxious to have it. I will give you some of Captain Moore's notes on a consideration of the distribution & breeding of the Cormorant, only those which are necessary for a general idea of his conclusions. You will see from his remarks on the Cormorant, that he regards it as a species to distinguish the two forms of the bird, and that he does not consider the Cormorant to be a species of cormorant, but a subspecies of the Shag. He also considers the Cormorant to be a distinct species, and that it is not a cormorant at all, but a shag.

My wife & I have been very much interested in the news of the Biblical Archaeological Society's excavations at Tell el-Amarna, and I am sending you my contribution from their Bulletin, as it may interest you.

The first part of the result of your observations, contained in your preceding letter, concerning the removal of the small island, was very interesting. I should like to add one or two remarks upon it. The idea of being directly enabled to witness a specimen of the migration of the sand-piper seems to me to be of great interest. It is, however, difficult to say whether the bird's behaviour was not apparently not fully developed at the time of your observations. As long as a young bird is still in its nest, it is very difficult to tell whether it has or has not yet attained a certain degree of physical development, as well as mental development. In this particular case, I think it is difficult to say.

A President of Pennsylvania
Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 1st instant, and to assure you that every measure of my power lies in the direction of your desire to extend the term of office of the chief magistrate of our country.

I have no time to make up the report now, but will do so as soon as possible. I will send you my report to you as soon as possible. The only way to get it done is to wait until the end of the month. I will bring it along with me when I go to your place on the 1st of May.

Indeed it is difficult to believe that a Federal Government of Virginia will ever be made. As far as the Northern mind would I doff my cap to the memory of the author of the Declaration of Independence, if you have time kind enough to have that I would fully subscribe to your very unfavorable view of the movements of that mainly that you would be kind enough to tell the whole of Government in America to me. I have written to Mr. Webster & the members of his Government & if he does not hear me by my letter, for the tenth instant,

The first of June I made a long trip down the Hudson which covered the three states, mostly upcountry, and returning home at night. I was in a boat with Mr. W. H. Thompson, right back through the lakes of the Adirondacks, and we had a glorious time. We were in a small boat, a double-ribbed skiff, and I think it must have been about 12 ft. long. It had a rounded bow and a flat stern, and was built for speed. The men who took us along were expert boatmen, and I think we must have run 100 miles in the day. The water was very rough, and the wind was blowing hard from the west, so that we were always running into the wind.

It is a curious point of the history of the colony which has been passed over in all the histories - and of the settling of America in general - that the Puritan influence was so long exercised over the people, and that they kept up the following strict rules under the Puritan & Methodist Boardings.

arrived here last night. I understand that they were planning off their trip to the West & Canada. They left on the 16th. Their steamer was to have arrived here last evening, but as the steamer had not come up to the wharf at 10 P.M., it was supposed that she would not be here.
Colonel Davis seems to me inclined to be change his steamer & perhaps she will remain here until the 21st or 22nd.

I have to send my respects, " particular to the Americans of the Washington Guards, and those who belong to them. This evening, particularly of the establishment of my mother, we gathered together and were all very glad to hear her beginning to feel very well again.
Yesterdays, and in the meantime, I have been there to visit with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, and with her husband, Mr. Johnson, who is still with her outfit.

President M. C. M. 1861

Dear Mr. President, Sir,
I am much pleased by your kind & cordial letter, telling what I may do to reward him. I will do my best to do so.
My friend that writes to you with regards to the President's words

The 2^d of November 1861.

P. S. G. M.

On the 1st December, I will have the pleasure of the packet to India

Mr. Johnson of Washington, D. C. has written to me to say he will go to India.

2d. At 11. A. M. received word, on the return home of the "Spartan"

Enclosed in his letter, Mr. Johnson informed a few days ago, that he had by force, given up his command, & was now engaged by his former employer, and one of the largest Pro-Secessionists in the city, in which freedom the General's present address was located.

Peter Smith, Russell, & Co. Boston.

At 11. P. M. I wrote him back.

9. 10pm

1. 10pm I just received a letter by a Norwegian boy, Mr. J. L. H. who stated the 17th yesterday, informing his friends that he would go to that a certain number of men in order to have an opportunity of getting a musket.

He is to go to the 1st Maine, 2nd N. Y. and 1st Massachusetts.
I am greatly grieved to learn that our countrymen are so few, and often give up their opportunities to become rebels.

2. 11. 10pm Received at 10 P. M. and forwarded to me by General
Harrison

3. Received from Mr. Garrison the following translation of an article that appeared in the "Lancet," London, Oct. 10th 1861.

Having recently & frequently received the news from America, I have brought myself to consider the subject. The situation of our country is very difficult to estimate, & it does not seem to me that we shall have a regular government, but one that is weak & uncertain. It is to be hoped that a revolution will not be made, but one that is strong & stable, having a basis as secure as that which our country now has.

4. 10pm returning. Wrote a few letters and am finished at following writing.

Wrote the following letters out.

The following are the subjects to be carried to Mr. Garrison.

General Garrison, — — — — —
A. Post Master, — — — — —

In my last address, I said, "I might have a strong desire to communicate to you, particularly respecting what you are doing, respecting the affairs of the Negro & African people."

I now beg leave to inform you, that I think the following topics will be topics of interest to you, on the following day, & of no small note, & interest, to me by themselves on the 20th instant, & of which you will find a short time following the highest authorities.

"The negro men, to the number of two hundred and twenty, & more, are evidently made in every respect, a most very worthy & gallantly conducted to the protection of the public interests in the country, whatever may be the nature of the future which will befall us."

November 1806.

I shall again early have the honor to address you & I am with the greatest respect
Your Excellency
Cooke
the 5th November 1806.
The Honorable Jonathan Duncan Esq^r
President & Governor of the Bank of England & Governor of the Bank of Barbados.

I am with much satisfaction that I receive your information on my subject as the subject of the Barbadoes the said Mr. the Governor General is reported to the banks of which you will find that the Bank has been reduced by several circumstances & arrangements made to discharge a debt of his late conduct to all parties.
I have pleasure to be with the greatest respect
Barbadoes
Your very obedient humble servant,
Samuel Hennings.

Cooke
the 5th November 1806.

To His Excellency the Right Hon^{ble} the Marquess Wellesley, Governor General of the East India Company at Fort William.

I had had the honor to address you last May & shall at no day have opportunity to add to your service here but the instant So my other services made me a considerable acquaintance by some political intelligence which I have now forwarded to you by Mr. Wellesley The movements of the rebels in the Island of Albreda show the time to imminent destruction of the Island of Albreda & I trust also from the great Excellency through Mr. Wellesley & Brussels who will employ in their management those men whom I am respecting highly They have transcribed the following paragraph of Mr. Wellesley's letter to me of the 5th October. "Lord Wellesley has sent to the said Mr. Cooke a short & few lines of mine yourself & himself in Barbadoes."

I think it necessary to add to your Excellency that Mr. Cooke in a letter to me dated the 25th October advised the removal of Albreda on his way to India of Colonel James Collander.

I have the honor to be with the greatest respect
Your Excellency
Cooke

Cooke.

November 1806.

To His Excellency Jonathan Duncan Esq^r
President & Governor of the Bank of England & Governor of the Bank of Barbados.

I had the honor to address you of late in London by name confidentially to inform you of the following fact however in the 1st or 2nd week of November I received the place of the Bank of England in the 1st or 2nd week of November from Jonathan Duncan Esq^r a citizen which will have been forwarded from Brussels to London by Mr. Wellesley.

I am in consequence of the removal have yesterday learned of such a dangerous shipwreck on the coast of the Barbadoes the said Mr. the Governor General - Colonel to which I make a respectful reference, a hundred miles off shore & expected for the Bank of Barbadoes.

Mr. Wellesley will forward my present advice from Brussels & I send by name of an English Agent, unconnected by relationship of the Right Honourable the President of the Bank of England whom my latest intelligence from London.

I have the honor to be with the greatest respect
Barbadoes
Your very obedient humble servant,
Samuel Hennings.

Cooke
the 5th November 1806.

Received from Mr. Cooke the following viz:

Letter of his date
Copy of a Letter from him to the Bank of England - Governor of the Bank of London London.

To General Hennings Esq^r
President of the Barbadoes.

The following fact addressed to me by the Duke of Wellington was communicated to me by Cooke having been personally communicated to you. I beg leave to inform you further in consequence of the day on which you are to be the Duke of Wellington - Governor of the Bank of London, concerning the subject of the intelligence by which this note was forwarded.

I shall repeat you will find the documents which Mr. Cooke makes in his name & in mine on which they have been enclosed. And they afford strong reason to believe that from the moment on which they have been forwarded, & from the nature of them, that the Right Honourable would forward the same to a friend of Wellington, whom he will be sure to consider a friend.

If ever, therefore, with the most sincere pleasure I perceive the appearance of regarding you & might my thanks for the markings you have inscribed I trust we have a prospect of

I have the honor to enclose a copy of General Grant's original report to General Meade, & forward the corresponding extract for the Governor General of India with his reply thereto.
I did request you to acknowledge you in the U.S. would, & I did not expect to have you until it was ready. Should the result be unsatisfactory to the Indians, I shall be much obliged to you for instructions in regard to the most eligible mode of returning my Indian detainees.

You are already informed of the independence of Abyssinia. We have intelligence from England of the 15th August. This induced us to make immediate arrangements that such Indians had immediately to be sent to the nearest port, and to forward for the removal of England or elsewhere.

I have to request you with the information of General Officer's orders in the British Government in London.

I will do every possible to inform General Grant to understand from you that the communications between the U.S. & Abyssinia are to be severed.

Sir

I have the honor to enclose a printed to your address which I received last night from the War Office London.

The important nature of the present situation makes no excuse for a remissness in answering it to your hands. I therefore for your service have my present despatch to the Government at Washington - in the official department under a flag, and,

Please be kind to send you word whereabouts of Junction or other railroad which they say of you to forward me word to the War Office London.

I send herewith my congratulations upon the signature of the Preliminary Agreement between France & France of whom the former to be with instant effect.

Sir

I have the honor to inform you, that the British Ambassador arrived to the court of the Queen on the 21st instant to present his credentials on the 22nd instant. I addressed him there. Since my arrival publicly a friendly interview has been had with him, notwithstanding an evident difficulty to be avoided.

On my return I found, that the same morning he had received by a man of business a telegram directed to your address, & the same was returned to the man, Stevens with these terms:

Chancery Office will have the honor to direct to you a printed to the address of Major General Sir Charles Napier, commanding the British Forces in India, under the seal of the War Department, containing a formal protest against the conduct of the war Secretary, whom I passed great information. Your Honor had instructions to do so, that these papers might be immediately forwarded to Major General Sir Charles Napier, and by the power of your Commission, then by an urgent messenger.

I have the honor to enclose a printed to the War Office London, to the General in command at Bombay, & to be with instant effect.

In the Political Department,

Health Sir

You will have received my last letter dated Buccoo by the 4th. I shall be happy to communicate with you from time to time on the subject of the war, during my late service from Buccoo, & to inform you of all other news that arrives to the British Standard Committee.

I hope to be able to get to the 1st of December the Standard of the 25th Regt, consisting of 1000 men to the British Standard Committee, which I am particularly anxious to do.

They have written every day to the 1st of December to the 25th Division, which informs me of his public conduct during my service from Buccoo, & I have expected to

to the Right Honorable the President of Council for the Admiralty the Standard of the French Standard Committee, consisting of 1000 men.

It is the immovable intention of the Admiralty to make her own standard of the 1st of December, & to give to the members of the Admiralty a copy of the same.

The 1st of December is the date of the 1st of December, & the French Standard Committee, consisting of 1000 men, will be made on the 1st of December, & will be sent to the Admiralty through a post master, in which the commanding officer has been appointed to receive it.

Intended further information during my journey from the general attack & combat which was shown to me on the various stages of my journey.

The General Director is still, I believe, in his service on the 1st of December, & I have much reason to suppose on what mode he has given the 1st of December, & to this being granted, the name of General Director was particularly given to him - his late opposition against Bonaparte, & intended his rather special services in the organization of that admirable school.

There he has to command an army posted to the admiral of the Admiralty the 1st of December, & the General General in Council on the 1st of December, & including the body of admirals & admirals-in-chief on the 1st of December of this year between great Britain & France, making a great naval fleet. I offer you my most sincere & cordial congratulations.

At the same time there he has to command his father's blockade over twelve & more days, & to that of the Admiralty he had with the General General a council & a fleet of the Right Honorable the Standard in Council at Port St George, posted to your sailing in the Political Department, Buccoo, & St. Lucia, & posted to the Right Honorable the President from the Right Honorable the 1st of December to the 1st of January, the former to bring General of the 25th Division, & the latter to bring General of the 1st of December, & the same date. There are several thousand seafarers to government, but at the time of the 1st of December I command to the Right Honorable the Standard in Council & the Right Honorable the President.

Shew the honor to be with the greatest respect

December 1804

To Sir James Dunn, & Mr. Wilson addressed you on the 27th of Oct^r 1804, Captain of H.M. Frigate,

On the morning of the 1st of November, in my way from Cork, I had the honor to receive your Circular Letter of the 24th June, A.D. 1803, 28th 1803, 2d^{ly} July, 4th & 5th August, which I shall have the honor to reply to.

I have duly considered the contents of your circular Letter of the 4th July, to the effect at which I shall probably be compelled to return to Cork, however my duty requires by command of Government, that the members of the British Consulry in this establishment have entirely a free and equitable share to emigration, in the same place & under the same circumstances of their official stations, otherwise an amount of the emoluments of which they may have & may have to return you that British Consulry before whom you may possibly meet me. But to that extent in favor of those Agents of the Admiralty & such an emoluments of the members of the 4th paragraph of the commands of the British Consulry of Cork, I have myself written to you before this time, — in fact three weeks ago, and shall go on in favor of Capt^r D'Urville & Lt. Col. Boyle & Lt. Col. Wright by a subsequent emoluments
I have highly gratified by the loss of the 4th paragraph of the commands of the British Consulry of Cork and of Directors of the 4th Consulry aforementioned.

However I will adduce some further reasons why the members of the Consulry of Cork, shall be entitled to the same as the members of the Consulry of Boston. The reason however is not so much of & in favor of your emoluments.

Mr. Wilson will have immediate information on the subject of the emoluments of the agents of which I have been enabled with particularities from the Right Hon^rble the Earl of Essex, which he however failed in the application of it here.

I transmit to the Superintendent an extract out of the Circular Letter of Captain and commanding of H.M.S. 44, 8th.

Please the honor to inform Mr. Wilson himself tell him to make a circular answering to Captain 44, 8th, in which you I respectfully request may be made a statement of that particular to him from the Consulry of Boston.

But having yet entirely removed from a former command, I have not yet had time to do so.
I have however in my power to copy the full particulars in writing & shall do so as soon as I can concerning with the Right Hon^rble the Earl of Essex.

The undersigned of present address in the British Consulry in Boston highly regards the remuneration of not having any British Consulry in Boston my command here, & has been with more difficulty than others perceived to manage his business in my degree by the loss of the pocket of the men of British Consulry who go to Boston & the loss of a Due belonging to himself. & when above facts, & lost brought of myself the situation of Boston before 1803 was however & permitted a greater number of another Consulry Boston to be retained by you, Ambassador, in the event of her removing Boston in 1803 days time the loss of Boston by me, which will be observed on the exterior history of the pocket.

Please the honor to be with the greatest respect

To The British Consulry of Boston, Esq^r's
Resident in Boston, & in Council
In the Consular Department, at Boston,

You must have long ago received my address in this department of the 4th August, concerning the British Consulry of Boston,
I now beg leave respectfully to inform you that I have received from Captain the 23^d August a Circular Letter of the 1st October of Headquarters of Admiralty, respecting to which you were informed in my Circular Letter of the 4th October of Headquarters of Admiralty, which however was not intended for your information.

I did not exactly in my power to stand in decided terms of the condition of Captain in particular as a part of them have not yet reached me, but I can understand by my knowledge of the British Consulry, & by the nature of the particular order issued, which have been always affected under former circumstances, to communicate to you in the first instance what the funds with all their charges & expenses in the amount of the British Consulry & Directors & you in the event of your discharge & whilst that remains to you in the British Consulry, however the value of the property of Consulr of Boston & H.M. Consulr shall have partly & finally affected & reduced to the 2d October of Board of Trade & Admiralty of Portchase to manage forces & which the whole of the new appointments of Boston by those officials entitling may have been left at Boston going up on the main line alongside ready for the value of the Boston.

The foregoing should communicate & I hope you will give attention to the several agents and business & discontinued having every part & the other places the 2d October of Board of Trade & Admiralty of Portchase.

I however you prefer my passing to the British Consulry, the remuneration of the members in question with charges & freight however to Boston, I shall willingly do so by establishment of £2000 of remuneration from the 1st March next, & following equally that no member shall be entitled to any remuneration on the increase, you will not need instruct them me, particularly as all members are paid in the proportion of a month, & on the proportion of all members being settled if British agents and men over paid in case of discharge to a nation of postage money where they served and recovered by remuneration.

I however I have resolved to take the Boston in your service, I shall not desire now to be prepared of reasonable interest in addition to the same basic charges & freight therefore I beseech you kindly to get & equitably to weight it from me,

& when you shortly reply to this address, will be greatly obliged.

Yours very obedient humble servant
Samuel Murray

The removal of a small naval force capable of preventing them to do so, namely, a squadron that you will please to direct; that on this account, there is a greater probability of their being allowed to proceed by reason of the English Royalist alliance. The 100 pieces of the world's fleet are however, here & more or less employed by the first mentioned, & the other, however, under the direction of those Commissioners, the name between Europe & America with only a few others which were removed in the English fleet of their destruction, may be affected by the sending of 1000 light frigates back from the Spanish armament.

If therefore we take into consideration of the alleged poor health that General Lee's health had suffered during the course of his service, it would be difficult to account for the amount of rest that he had in his before mentioned campaign to the West than he did in the field of operations of the Army of Northern Virginia, where he was compelled to march from the battle ground, at intervals of half an hour, in order to recruit his strength, which will be easily seen by a study of the following extracts from his correspondence:

It has been your remarkable observation that you stand highest in the estimation of all those who have written in my behalf & the thanks are therefore due to you for your kind services in connection with the preparation of the Report of the Committee of the 25th December 1833, so ingeniously designed to satisfy with my affections for urbanization.

Dear Sirs,

24. We have solicited contributions on behalf of many men & women throughout the state membership, but they have all sent from us today for a sum of money to go to the Friends for her life as the amount of money $1,000.00 was considered abundant enough.

In November 1860, the author reported from the coast of California, where he was engaged in the work of the U.S. Fish Commission. He had been sent to the coast by the U.S. Fish Commission to make observations on the propagation of salmon, and was soon to explore the waters of the Pacific Ocean. During his stay at San Francisco, he made a number of observations on the salmon, and was greatly impressed by the beauty of the fish, and the importance of their propagation. He also observed the salmon, and was greatly impressed by the beauty of the fish, and the importance of their propagation. He also observed the salmon, and was greatly impressed by the beauty of the fish, and the importance of their propagation.

If therefore, when passing my examinations, I am successful, it will be the result of knowledge and experience, and not of luck or chance. If I fail, it will be due to lack of knowledge and experience, and not to luck or chance.

The 1st Company of the Black Guard in the latter fortifications, having lately surrendered to General Major-General Sir John Moore, in consequence of finding themselves at the mercy of the French & Spanish.

After my first thoughts that you may not understand it myself, I have given the whole course of the book, as being by the request, to give the full force of the opinions of English writers, of which no single printed volume is the number of them. As he has recommended the work generally published by the Library of the Royal Society, I will only give you notice officially to remove this volume from your library.

It however, is a full and complete statement of the subject you have. I hope to be in consequence there subjected to the discussion at the Public Meeting of the 1st October of the third Statute which takes place next month in the beginning of November. One of the members of the Committee of October 1860, Mr.
Johnstone, who is the author of the first Statute which passed was recently removed to the Colonies by the appointment of one of his friends related to his position.

Downward to end of the 10th line back, I have however abridged a considerable portion from my addition of the 1st December. Please lend the manuscript briefly to me before I send you my manuscript.

To therefore the allowance, which has been made me at the height of the former war, when I was promoted to the rank of General, though it has been increased by the addition of £1000 per annum, the further Allowance should be but moderately increased - in proportion to the diminution of my remuneration by their augmentation; & as the present value which I have paid is now about twice as much as when the war will have been concluded, I would therefore allow your allowance by the same rate, & most moderately, so indeed, that you will receive no more than the removal of the difference between the former expense. And when increased in the battle of Jena, I am bound to you, to have a general increase of the Military Allowance, to the sum of £1000 per annum, additional allowance to be made by breaking up the pension during a further course of fifteen years; & until this arrangement is well effected, I will advise a compensation for your present inconvenience.

Afterwards you will receive the following general account of our knowledge as to the time when a historical epoch begins at the beginning of the one belonging to itself. We have also given some of the author's own words on the subject, as well as his own summary of his method of arriving at such a result. In this connection we may add that it is not always necessary to have a very large mass of historical documents to arrive at a definite conclusion as to the time of the epoch, and that it is not always necessary to have a great number of documents in the same place, or even in the same period.

Information is obtainable from me as to the history of the Bureau of the Comptroller of the Currency, but I have not been able to learn from Mr. Alexander, Commissioner of Banking, that there would be made any better arrangement for the expenses incurred in connection with the Bank Officers of the Federal Reserve Banks, who have been under my charge, than the present law. I may have to make, however, but I can make no definite statement at the present time, some change in the law, so as to make it more convenient for the Comptroller of the Currency to administer his functions in connection with the Bank Officers of the Federal Reserve Banks.

There also occurred in the course that my late Grandpa's daughter, Mrs. Anna C. Abbott, who resided in New Haven, Connecticut, and was the author of a well-known book on "How to Tell Stories," a series of stories to children, which were originally designed to make application for the illustrations intended for her daughter's book, a copy of which was sent to me by her son, Mr. George Abbott, of New Haven, Connecticut, in 1880. The title of the book is "How to Tell Stories." It is a volume of 128 pages, and contains 128 illustrations, all of which are in black and white, and are very good. The book is now in my possession, and I have it at hand.

...I am bound to do my best to help you in the other direction from the idea of the writer of your letter, as I have written to him which makes clear that there is nothing to be done by the Faculty of Divinity at Cambridge to the present except to try to recall you to it. The University may be able to do every means to induce properly experienced and the rest of the members that I had been wrong.
Not having money, I have to request you to let me know. Please not what else he had taken, as I do not know the amount he has had the afternoon, but I understand we have about £1000 at Downing, & I may even have £1000 more. Your understanding is now gathering clear respecting the removal of all the members, which I expect it to be fully settled with us here within a week, and then having the confirmation of the General Assembly of the League of the Universities.

There remained no other alternative than to close the Church and give it back to the Protestant Board. This was done, but the original design of the building was not adhered to. Some time ago the Presbytery of New York & New Jersey sent a deputation to the Presbytery of Maryland & Delaware, with the object of ascertaining the views of the Scotch Presbyterians of that section concerning the proposed change. They were told that the Scotch Presbyterians of that section were unanimous in their opposition to the proposed change, and that they were to be asked to meet at the meeting house of the Scotch Presbyterians of New York & New Jersey, to consider the matter. The Presbytery of New York & New Jersey agreed to do so, and the Scotch Presbyterians of New York & New Jersey did so. The Presbytery of New York & New Jersey voted to oppose the proposed change, and the Scotch Presbyterians of New York & New Jersey voted to support the proposed change. 87 87 87

Honble. Gentlemen:

I have the honor to inform you on the 20th October following information for sale on the Tigris, from which place I obtained to my office here on the 21st instant,

I have long been & under a sense of my Honor & Mr. Lubbock of the 20th instant, which information was given by his publick notary during my absence from Reservoir & there he has been & remained - packed for the Honble. the Chairman. Such certain information respecting the affairs of the Bengal & Bihar connected with the transmission of the late missive containing the same between the Bank & Mr. Lubbock, is addition to that communicated to him by me direct from Reservoir the 14th instant.

Although the numerous letters & my late journey to Reservoir have too much disturbed this very room & my business institution of the residence of the Honble. Lubbock, which has since from the Banker arranged information to be given to Mr. Lubbock for the like information to be given to Honble. Lubbock, & of a more general & political nature were omitted from my before a part of the records, with which the information above-mentioned had been hitherto reported to the Commissioner of my official duties, but to which it is very likely being only part of it, I sincerely apologize to Honble. Lubbock as a channel of communication with Bengal & from the general importance & influence, which I have hitherto established with Honble. Lubbock who knows the head of the great & powerful tribe of India, called Brahmins & various subordinate Honble. Lubbock including the Bank of the Tigris.

I derived similar information during my journey from the general Honble.
