STANDING ORDER No 15 D/ 28/12, 29

- 1 One Thirdeng and one Puithiam each with Kuli-awl will be allowed for each village up to 100 houses. Villages with more than 100 houses will be allowed 2 Thirdengs and 2 Puithiams each with Kuli-awl.
- (2) Circle Interpreters will report yearly for their respective circles if there is any village which does not require the services of Puithiam or Sadawt.
- (3) Tlahpawi will not be given Kuli-awl as such. It is opened to a chief to appoint the Tlahpawi as an Upa with Kuli-awl within the limit sanctioned for his village.
- (4) Persons who do not jhum because they have plenty of paddy must pay fathang or Rs 2/- to the chief as usual.
- (5) No change will be made in the existing orders by which villagers are required to build and repair the chief's house only.
- (6) Kuli-awl granted to Thidngs, Ufas etc. is personal only and will not be extended to cover his whole family.
- (7) No penalty will be imposed in case of appeals to Superintendent, or Assistant Superintendent. As penalty of ¹⁰⁰ Maik will be imposed on any person who brings up an old-case already decided by Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent except by way of regular appeal.

- (8) The chief himself is expected to deal in the first instance with any person who wilfully gives double over coolie work
- (9). Villages must construct and maintain School houses. In the case of village School Masters they must construct a house for the School Master, when a School is started. Once the houses has constructed the School Master will himself be responsible for its maintenance and repair

STANGDING ORDER NO 24 D/ 26-8-1930

As the present price of fowls supplied on parwana insufficient to cover the cost of carriage, and in some cases leaves nothing at all for the persons who supply them, the price of fowls is raised to eight annas from 1st September 1930.

Chiefs will be responsible that the persons who supply fowls are duly paid at the rate of not less than 5 annas a fowl. The amount allowed for carriage will in no cases exceed 3 annas per fowl

Khawchhiars will keep a list of persons who supply fowls, and submit a duplicate list to this office with the men who bring the fowls in. These lists will be made over to the Circle Interpreters concerned for check and report

The price of fowls supplied in mofussil will remain at 6 annas as before.

FINAL

Winner of X Ver-is Winner of F

Date of final will be notified later on

Note:—

No application for postponement of games will be entertained. Date and time already fixed will be strictly followed as far as possible. The duration of each match will be 25 minutes each way, with an interval of 5 minutes. An extra 15 minutes must be played in the case of all drawn Matches. In the final the extra 5 minutes will not be played in the case of first rain match, unless both the teams agree, but should match be drawn twice, the extra time must be played, if, in the opinion of the referee, the light be sufficiently favourable. Drawn games will be played on the date, fixed by the Secretary. Teams turning out late are liable to be scratched, only ten minutes grace allowed. The question whether the ground is in a fit state to play on after heavy rain will be decided on the spot by the Secretary in consultation with the referee, competing teams should therefore be present at the field where the question will be decided.

LUSHAI RIFLEMEN

It has been brought to my notice that Lushais who join the Assam Rifles frequently apply to be allowed to resign after only three years service, or a little more. The Superintendent observes this tendency with great regret. It operates to the disadvantage both of Government and of the Lushais themselves. It is only after three years service that a sepoy begins to be of any real use to the battalion and after all the trouble taken over his training, it is his duty to make good by sticking to the avocation he has chosen, and doing his very best for the battalion, and so for Government. Again this practice is to the detriment of the Lushais themselves. There are very few avenues of employment in this district, and it is foolish to neglect any one of them. It is still more foolish to give up an honourable occupation and a comfortable living when once these have been secured. The chief defects in the Lushai character, so far as I have observed, are impatience of discipline and a desire for novelty without any real intention of permanent endeavour once the novelty has worn off. For the eradication of these faults there can be no better school than a military career, and no more potent influence than the example of men who have served Government faithfully and long. I trust that the Lushais who are now enrolled in the battalion will show such an example, and build up a tradition of long and loyal service.

If however this hope should be disappointed and present ways are continued the result can only be the reduction and possibly the closing down of Lushai settlement. This is a contingency I am anxious to avoid. It would be far from creditable to the Lushai people.

The number of Lushai sepoy who have cut their names —
